Message

Education is the key to self development and empowerment.

-Lailah Gifty Akita.

Youth and vibrancy are like two sides of a coin. They supplement each other and oblige the society by their positivity and dreams. Youth is the power of India as India is a nation having the most number of young people all over the world. This raw power and potentials are needed to be motivated, trained and harnessed to brighten India's future.

I am happy to know that H. A. College of Commerce encourages students and the faculties of the college and provides them with the platform to showcase their creativity and talent.

I convey my best wishes to the magazine "Mashaal" being published in the first week of March 2019. Congratulations to the H. A. College of Commerce family.

Message

H.A. College of Commerce, Ahmedabad is one of the leading academic institutions with great achievers in all set of life. I am happy to learn that the college is publishing its Annual Magazine "Mashaal".

The college is coordinating some of the internationally acclaimed flagship programs in the faculty of Commerce. The college students are actively participating in NCC, NSS, Sports, Cultural and other extracurricular activities. The faculties in the college are taking kin interest in the overall development of the students. Such Activities, cultural events, achievements of students as well as faculty etc is chronicled in the Annual Magazine "Mashaal". This gives encouragement and motivation to the students as well as the staff to do better in their field.

I would like to take this opportunity to congratulate the Principal and other staff members in their sincere efforts in coming out with this publication and wish all the success.

Best wishes,

Prof. H.A. Pandya

Message from the desk of Shri Sudhirbhai Nanavati

Executive Vice-president, GLS

President, GLSU

The flame of Gujarat Law Society's HA College of Commerce started in the year 1956. Today, after 63 years of its existence, it is evident that it has remained ablaze for over six decades with the same zeal and passion, as it had when it was established.

I am proud of the progress that HA College has made over the past six decades of imparting quality education. Being an alumnus of this college myself, I have a first-hand experience of its glorious past, its legendary principals and staff, and its successful alumni.

Now, as the Executive Vice-president of GLS, it brings me pride to see how Gujarat Law Society and GLS University are aiming high in reaching for the best level of academics as well as co-curricular activities in its institutions. Since its establishment in 1927, GLS has remained a premier educational trust, committed towards the cause of education, society and nation.

I wish the principal, Dr. Sanjay Vakil, the staff members and the students of the college all the best as they move forward towards academic excellence. I am confident that the principal and staff are capable of keeping the flame of HACC burning bright and strong.

- Shri Sudhirbhai Nanavati

Executive Vice-president, GLS

President, GLSU

MESSAGE FROM THE DESK OF THE PRINCIPAL

Our college magazine is published to remember the year that has been, to cherish the memories of the events, activities and achievements that we have celebrated, and to show the path we have walked in 2018-2019.

In this past year, I am proud to state that the college has had organized two levels of University Youth Festivals, hosted a team of 14 students and two faculty members for 6 days under the aegis of the Gandhian Society, more than 50 events, 10 guest lectures, seminars & workshop, 1 State-level debate competition, 2 university youth festivals, and a host of other activities. Other noteworthy events were hosting of a Kavi Sammelan of renowned Gujarati poets, conducted an NSS camp for ten days at Ropda village, and many other programmes for students' development and growth.

All this has been possible due to the backing and sustenance of Gujarat Law Society, our mother organization. In particular, we have been inspired and encouraged by Shri Sudhir Nanavati, the Executive Vice-president of GLS. The faculty members of my college have worked hard and demonstrated perfect team-work, effort and excellence. The students of the college have justified our existence as administrators and teachers.

We have been blessed with the gifts of energy and capacity, and it is these gifts that are manifest in the various activities and in the different write-ups and reports in this magazine.

EDITORIAL PREFACE

The most powerful weapon on earth is a human soul caught on fire.

- Ferdinand Foch

Of all the elements on this planet, Fire seems to be perhaps the most symbolic and enigmatic. Mysteriously, it exists outside of the human being, just as it exists inside the human body. To have a fire inside the soul and spirit of a human being can bring about revolution, can even cause global transformation. Even a tiny spark can cause light and vision amidst immense darkness. This book is a comparable with a spark that can brighten the darkness, that can cause a fire to blaze.

Through this book, we wish to bring to you our life of the past one year at Gujarat Law Society's H. A. College of Commerce. There has been an effervescent flurry of activities and successes, a radiant range of events and happenings, and a sparkling spectrum of ideas and perspectives. Our students and staff have developed and evolved in diverse ways, each one as distinctively from the other. And as you browse through this book, you will see in words what we, as faculty and as eyewitnesses observed in deed. This manifestation of growth is what makes us confident that we are on the right path, that our journey towards quality and excellence is truly on.

As you read on, I wish that you see flames of knowledge, love and compassion kindled in the souls of the students and faculty. I invite you to share our experiences, which the world may call "success" but we only regard as inevitable growth. I urge you to feel the warmth and heat of our energy and dynamism, and emblaze the MASHAAL of our attempts at being an educational institution with a difference.

ACTIVITIES AND EVENTS

NOTEWORTHY EVENTS

Gandhian Inculturation Programme

The liaison between NJCU and HACC, which began in 2015, has now turned into a strong bond of collaborative partnership when 14 students and 2 faculty members came for 6 days as guests of the HA Gandhian Society. This visit of the NJCU team of students and faculty to a college in India, with organized homestays for all, in order to experience Gandhi's life and ideals, is one of the most unique events in educational history. The NJCU students and faculty of sociology, ESL, criminal justice, psychology etc. were hosted by students of HACC; the faculties were hosted by faculties of HACC. Dr. William Westerman and Dr. Steve Haber led the 14 students from NJCU on their trip to India. The stay of the NJCU team from 11 to 17 January was a flagship programme under the MoU between NJCU and HACC.

GLS and HACC Welcome the New Jersey City University (NJCU) President and Vice-President:

On the 5th and 6th of January, Dr. Sue Henderson, President, NJCU, and Ms Tamara Cunningham, Asst. Vice-President, (Global Initiatives), NJCU, visited Gujarat Law Society to meet with Shri Sudhir Nanavati, Executive Vice-President, GLS, and President, GLS University, and other GLS officials, so as to strengthen the existing ties between the two institutions.

Prajwalan: Gujarat University Ellisbridge South Zone and Inter-Zonal Youth Festivals:

Gujarat Law Society's HACC is among the rare grant-in-aid colleges to have the privilege of hosting both, the Ellisbridge South Zone and the Inter-Zonal youth festivals of Gujarat University, in the month of September this year. Aptly titled Prajwalan 2018, the tag-line of the events – “Igniting Talent” – indicated exactly what the Youth Festival is all about.

The Ellisbridge South Zone Youth Festival of Gujarat University was held from 12th to 15th September 2018. With 45 colleges participating in 29 different events, this is the largest zone of Gujarat University, recording a staggering 1500 plus number of participants!

The Principal of the college led the organization of the events forward, with coordinators and joint-coordinators. At the Ellisbridge South Zone level, Dr. Mahesh Sonara and Prof. Malti Vala were the coordinators. At the Inter-Zonal level, Dr. Chetan Mewada and Prof. Nikhil Vaidya were the coordinators.

The team spirit of HACC was evident in the way the entire staff and the committed volunteers worked towards organizing these events under the leadership of Principal Dr. Sanjay Vakil.

AWARENESS PROGRAMMES

World Cancer Day

The college organized a talk on the occasion of World Cancer Day to spread the awareness about the disease. Prin. Dr. Sanjay Vakil addressed the students and informed them about the different ways in which the disease could enter the body. He also made the students take a pledge to keep away from addictions and habits that could cause cancer.

Pledge to Vote

The college students were led on a pledge to vote during the upcoming elections in the country, and to uphold the values of democracy. The pledge-taking ceremony was led by the Principal and the authority from the University, thus creating an awareness of the importance of the Ballot.

SOCIAL OUTREACH PROGRAMMES

Awareness Drive against Drug Abuse & Illicit Trafficking:

CONCLUSION

This academic year has brought the college more brightness than darkness. The faculty members, the administrative staff and the students have worked together not only to enable their own light to shine brighter, but also to spread the light of excellence amongst the students and in society. More significantly, the entire H.A. parivaar has learnt together. The “Mashaal” of the college has burnt brighter, lighting the paths of all those walking in its radiance, and hopes to continue doing so in the coming years.

GANDHI FOR ALL, GANDHI FOR ALWAYS

Introduction:

The greatest quality of Mahatma Gandhi is perhaps his capacity to reach out to citizens of one of the largest countries in the world, breaking all barriers that could exist in communication and in society. It is difficult to believe that he could do this without Google, YouTube, Facebook and WhatsApp. And yet, history is witness to the fact that he did. His vast outreach and connection with the masses makes me believe in the relevance of Gandhi for ALL and for ALWAYS.

This paper is divided into three sections:

- Gandhi and the One
- Gandhi and the Other
- Gandhi and the Many

In the first section – Gandhi and the One – the idea of Gandhi's spirituality and his connection with God will be discussed. The second section – Gandhi and the Other – will discuss the Mahatma's one-to-one interaction with people who came in contact with him personally. And in the third section – Gandhi and the Many – Gandhi Bapu as a public figure and national leader will be discussed. The paper will conclude with the reiteration of the relevance of Gandhi for all times, showing how only a man of high spirituality, deep understanding and immense compassion could only be a Mahatma. A Mahatma has no time-bound existence, because the Atma is eternal.

Gandhi and the One:

Gandhiji was a highly evolved, spiritual human being. For him, Spirituality was his most important priority. Politics, public life, independence and freedom, and social upliftment were all the by-products of his spirituality. They all emerged from his spiritual foundation. His view about God and religion was not a narrow, limited one. He says:

"True religion is not a narrow dogma. It is not external observance. It is faith in God and living in the presence of God. It means faith in a future life, in truth and Ahimsa.... Religion is a matter of the heart."

As a person progresses on the path of spirituality, his or her priorities in life change. The focus of life shifts more towards getting personal happiness through mental peace or by helping others and less on material needs, greed and desires. Gandhiji's experiments on simple and sustainable living, not only for himself but for all his fellow-citizens as well, followed his own spiritual progress. His maxim of simple living and high thinking was lived through his life only because of his intense spirituality.

The strength of his character came from this deep spirituality. As he says, "I have no strength save what God gives me. I have no authority over my countrymen save the pure moral. If He holds me to be a pure instrument for the spread of non-violence in place of the awful violence now ruling the earth, He will give me the strength and show me the way. My greatest weapon is mute prayer." It is such deep faith that is evident in the entire personality of the Mahatma. And it is through the strength of his faith in God that he could lead the country towards a non-violent and satyagrahi fight to attain independence.

Gandhi and the Other:

In phenomenology, the term "the Other" identifies another human being, a being distinct and separate from the Self. It is only in being able to identify the Other that we can know ourselves. The Other is a cumulative, complementary factor in the self-image of a person. In other words, the Other that gives us the acknowledgement of being real.

Gandhi created his own identity based on the identity of the Other. For him the Other was the ordinary Indian citizen. A British Delegate at a UN Security Meeting reportedly said that Gandhi was "the friend of the poorest, the loneliest, and the lost." Working towards India's independence, he identified with 80% of the peasant and illiterate people. His clothing, his lifestyle, his approach to those with whom he communicated, were all based on his notion of the Other. Before emerging as a national leader, Gandhi believed in establishing strong, healthy and clear relationships personally, professionally and politically. It would not be possible to mention all the instances in Gandhi's autobiography where he acted in accordance with the principle of respect for others, seeking to build a positive and peaceful relationship. On each occasion, whenever Gandhi acted, he always asked himself the same questions: Who is this person? What does he think? What is of interest to him? How can I convince and inform him?

Gandhi and the Many:

Gandhiji could move millions during India's freedom struggle as India's citizens closely identified with this simple ascetic. He towered above them all, yet he was one of them. The Gandhian technique of mobilizing people, activating them and provoking them into unified action, has been successfully used by many oppressed societies around the world under the leadership of people like Martin Luther King in the United States, Nelson Mandela in South Africa, and now Aung San Sun Kyi in Myanmar, which is a strong testimony to the continuing relevance of Mahatma Gandhi.

Not only did Gandhi lead all Indians towards independence and freedom, but he also could lead the entire world into a new mindset of satyagraha and ahimsa. Much more than preaching human behavior and ethics, or prescribing norms of conduct, he lived the life he wanted his fellow citizens to live. India has always been a nation of many diverse nationalities, but never did they so unanimously identify with a leader as they identified with Gandhi, and this was across classes and communities which were even more sharply divided than they are these days.

Conclusion :

Gandhi's relevance today lies in his ability to connect with people beyond all boundaries. Only a person of deep spirituality, immense understanding and profound compassion can have the capacity to rise above the narrow and restrictive categories of class, caste, religion and community. In fact, his entire personality could be summed up in just one line that he wrote: "My life is my message."

Mahatma Gandhi's patriotism and nationalism were not narrow-minded or exclusive, but were part of his search for truth through unity in diversity and through service. These were expressions of his swadeshi spirit. He states: "I am patriotic because I am human and humane. It is not exclusive. I will not hurt England and Germany to serve India".

Sam Pitroda writes: "While the twenty-first century has been defined by globalisation, free markets, privatisation, liberalisation... it has also been marked by violence, extremism, inequity, poverty, and disparity. Amidst all this, if one poses the question of relevance of Gandhiji to our age, one is struck by an astounding need for him for our times. Gandhiji's ideals... and leadership hold an extremely relevant moral and social mirror to our society." In our times and for our society, Gandhi's compassion, values and strength of character are, and have been, incomparable.

It is extremely significant that Gandhi was given the title of Mahatma. In a sense, "Mahatma" is an elevated state of the mind that can be achieved with the right thoughts and actions. And Gandhi represented this elevated state of mind. Mahatma is also a great, enlightened soul. The Atma, or the Soul, is eternal. An enlightened soul is even more so. And so are the values and philosophies of Mahatma Gandhi. Hence, the title of this paper – Gandhi for All, Gandhi for Always.

Looking behind my fences...

- Fehrinkhan Pathan
Semester - 6

All the 3 years of my college life seems to have been passed in a blink of an eye.

I still remember the day when I came to fill the form for my admission (first time without my parents) haha....

Now as I look back, my college for me became the place to lose my fears, a place where you can be real. I would like to advise every student who ever lays an eye on this, to participate in various activities during these 3 years, it'll give you experience of a lifetime. It will help you grow as a person. I bumped into some students who will stay friends for life, the Professors with whom I will always be in touch with. The Professors made a nice balance between academics and other activities.

I've seen Students who were able to find out what they really wanted from life.

Me as an introvert have opened up a lot, came over the monotonous routine of coming to the college, attending lectures and back home, to interacting with people, making new friends and taking my own decisions .

I'm a bit sad by the thought of leaving my college but also excited to see what the world has for me. Taking with me some beautiful memories that I'll cherish for life!!!

My guiding principles in life

- Krishna Gor
Semester - 6

A person of principle means someone who faithfully follows their principles or a set of ideals, instead of abandoning them when inconvenient. Just as the ideals of an artwork become very important to an artist, so also in the artwork of life, the guiding principles of a person become very important.

My guiding principles come from the world of mass media which I see all around me. In today's world mass media plays a very prominent role. Companies seem to create tag lines and concepts around them, so as to show a deeper side of the company that people can relate with. I am really inspired by some of the taglines of different companies:

- DARR KE AAGE JEET HAI

Be fearless in your life. I do have many fears but my parents, well-wishers and teachers have shown me how to deal with fear and fight against it.

- HAPPY TO HELP

I believe that, "Service to humankind is service to God". And so I feel happy when I help others.

- DESH KI DHADKAN

I am a patriotic person, and I believe that we all are the heartbeats of our country. The youngsters of today are the heartbeats of India, and should always remember to keep the nation as the topmost priority.

We are here in the world to be unique and to live our own life in different ways. Don't try to impress other by pretending to be who you are not. Be genuine and true to yourself.

NSS CAMP - 2019

- મારો અનુભવ

- Deepti Chavda

Semester - 4

એચ.એ.કોલેજ ઓફ કોમર્સના એન.એસ.એસ. યુનિટ દ્વારા પ્રોફેસર એચ.બી.ચૌધરી ના માર્ગદર્શન હેઠળ અમે અમદાવાદ થી ૨૦.કિલોમીટર દૂર આવેલા રોપડા ગામમાં તારીખ-૨૧/૧/૨૦૧૯ થી ૨૭/૧/૨૦૧૯ સાત દિવસના એન.એસ.એસ. કેમ્પનું આયોજન કરવામાં આવ્યું હતું. જેમાં અમે ૧૯ છોકરીઓ તથા ૩૦ થી વધુ છોકરાઓએ ભાગ લીધો હતો. અમે ગામની શાળા 'રોપડા પ્રાથમિક શાળા' માં ૭ દિવસ રહ્યા હતા.

પહેલા દિવસે તો અમે ગામ ના લોકોની મુલાકાતે ગયા હતા અને તેમનો પરિચય લીધો. ત્યારબાદ અમે અમારા એન.એસ.એસ. કેમ્પની પ્રવૃત્તિઓની શરૂઆત કરી. જેમાં ગામની સ્વચ્છતા, જુદી જુદી સ્પર્ધાઓ, તથા સાંસ્કૃતિક કાર્યક્રમો જેવી પ્રવૃત્તિઓની શરૂઆત કરી. જેમાં ગામમાં જુદા-જુદા સ્વચ્છતા અંગેના પોસ્ટર્સ લગાવ્યા અને ગામના લોકોને સ્વચ્છતા, રાખવાથી શું ફાયદા થાય તેનાં વિશે પણ માહિતી આપી. તથા બાળકોમાં રહેલી સુશુભ શક્તિઓને બહાર લાવવા માટે રંગોલી-વેસ્ટ માંથી બેસ્ટ, સામાન્યજ્ઞાન-સ્પર્ધા, અંગ્રેજી ગ્રામર સ્પર્ધા, ફ્રેન્સી ડ્રેસ સ્પર્ધા જેવી ઘણી બધી સ્પર્ધાઓ નું આયોજન કર્યું હતું. અને બાળકોએ ઉત્સાહ પૂર્વક ભાગ લીધો હતો.

દિવસ દરમિયાન આવી જુદી જુદી પ્રવૃત્તિઓ કર્યા બાદ રાત્રે અમે ગામનાં લોકો સાથે બેસતાં, વાતો કરતાં અને તેમનાં મનોરંજન તથા કઈક નવા વિચારોનાં પ્રચાર માટે અમે શેરી નાટકો તૈયાર કર્યા હતા તે અમે ભજવ્યા હતા. માત્ર નાટકો જ નહીં. પરંતુ સાંસ્કૃતિક કાર્યક્રમો કર્યા હતા. અમે આપણો "પ્રજાસત્તાક દિન" ૨૬ મી જાન્યુઆરી, ત્યાં રોપડા ગામની શાળા માં ઉજવ્યો હતો. અને એજ દિવસે "BLOOD DONATION CAMP"નું આયોજન કર્યું હતું. તથા નાના બાળકોને વિટામિન મળે તે માટે CHOCOLATE FLAVORED "દવાઓના કેન પણ આપ્યા હતા. આવા બધા કાર્યક્રમો થી અમારા માં રહેલી સ્ટેજ નો ડર પણ દૂર થઈ ગયો. એન.એસ.એસ. કેમ્પનાં સાત દિવસ દરમિયાન દરેક નવી ક્ષણે કઈક નવું શીખવા મળ્યું. એન.એસ.એસ. કેમ્પ એ "સતત કઈક નવું શીખી, તેનો અમલ આ જીવન કરવો" માટે અમને પ્રેરિત કર્યા છે.

College Students, College Life Enjoy કરતાં હોય છે. હું પણ કરતી હતી. પરંતુ કેમ્પમાં ગયા બાદ મને એવો અનુભવ થાય છે કે, "પોતાના માટે તો કઈક કરીને ખુશી મેળવવી, એના કરતાં સો ગણી ખુશી બીજા માટે કઈક કરીએ ત્યારે મળે છે"

અહિંયાંથી ગયા ત્યારે અમે "કોરા કાગળ" જેવા હતા, ત્યાં જઈને ગામના લોકોનું જીવન, ત્યાનાં લોકો તથા સેવા વિશે એટલી બધુ માહિતી ન હતી. પરંતુ સુંદર વાતાવરણ, ગામના લોકોનો પ્રેમાળ સ્વભાવ, અમારાં પ્રત્યેની લાગણી, સાંસ્કૃતિક કાર્યક્રમો દ્વારા કઈક નવાં સંદેશ તથા ઘણા અનુભવોથી આ કાગળ ભરાઈ ગયું.

મારો સૌથી યાદગાર અનુભવ એટલે, "એન.એસ.એસ. કેમ્પ ૨૦૧૯" ખરેખર ! જો આપણે આપના જીવનની સાચી મજા માનવી હોય ને, તો એક વાર NSS CAMP કરવો જ જોઈએ.

Precious Moments

- Rosemin Chacko
 Semester - 2

Life is just moments,
 So precious and few;
 Whether valued or squandered,
 Its all upto you.

Live each day like its your last,
 Don't waste the time you have.
 Pay attention to everthing
 Right there and right then.

Laugh till it hurts,
 Let the tears drop up.
 Live up each moment
 The lesson is there.

For yesterday is but a dream,
 And tomorrow is but a vision;
 But today well lived, makes every yesterday a dream of happiness;
 And every tomorrow a vision of hope.

And the person you're with
 In that moment you share;
 Give them all your focus,
 Be totally there.

In just 60 seconds,
 You can make new friend.
 Find your true love,
 Or see a life start or end.

Don't let your mind wander,
 To what's coming next.
 Cherish this moment,
 And give it to your best.....

Social Problems

- Barkha Daswani

Semester - 2

India emerged as an independent nation-state on 15th August 1947, after a long struggle against the British colonial yoke. The country is a Sovereign, Socialist, Secular, Democratic Republic with a parliamentary system of government. Though India has shown tremendous growth in all spheres of national life in the years after independence, yet many problems plague the everyday social life; the problems, many a time, are interrelated.

Poverty, Population, Pollution, Illiteracy, Corruption, Inequality, Gender discrimination, Terrorism, Communalism, Lack of Infrastructure, Unemployment, Regionalism, Casteism, Alcoholism, Drugs Abuse, Violence against Women are the major social problems of India.

To understand social problems, sociologists look “from outside” at individuals rather than looking them “from inside”, to examine the thoughts, cause, and action. This is due to the fact that for the sociologist, many problems that appear as personal are actually social problems, because personal experience in one way or another is influenced by social forces. Prominent American sociologist C. Wright Mills uses the term “sociological imagination” to refer to this ability to see the impact of social forces on individuals, especially on their private lives.

Social innovation may take the form of a policy, a programme, or advocacy that features an untested or unique approach. Innovation usually starts at the community level, but it can grow into a national or international programme. The concept of “partnership housing” was developed by Millard and Linda Fuller in 1965, partnering those in need of adequate shelter with community volunteers to build simple interest-free houses. In India, recent initiative 'Swachh Bharat', 'Digital India', 'Make in India' etc. are also unique social innovations that can transform Indian society in a big way.

The Change

- Mohit Prajapati

Semester - 2

The start could be same but end would be anything. No matter what or where were we, but now we are together. Coping up from school to college could be a serious task because all of a sudden you go through a drastic change like no uniform, no school bus, no assembly, no tiffin box, no heavy bags and no daily homework. No matter you like it or not you have to accept it. Up till now we were made to see the world through rose-tinted glasses, but from now we got to see what the real world is. what it takes to survive, what is struggle, what it takes to earn and what is it like to lose something. We start to believe and value things because part of the journey ends...

The long study race that was started 12-15 years back in school is slowly coming to an end and soon these days would be mere memories may be the most precious ones. so you got to make it, before you break it!!!

तुम....

- Bhagyashree Makhija
Semester - 6

तुम थे, तुम्हारा एहसास न था,
ज़माने भर की खबर थी, तुम्हारा पता न था।
सोते रहे ज़िंदगी भर दुनियादारी की मधहोशी में,
आहट तुम्हारी महसूस ना हुई, जब जब तुम आए दहेलिज पे।
अनसुनी करते रहे तुम्हारी पुकार,
हर बार काम की बातों में उलझे रहे।
कदम हमारे चलते रहे,
दूरिय तुमसे बढ़ाते रहे।
समाज की बेडियो में हम जकड़ते रहे,
अज्ञाता के दल में धस्ते रहे।
ठोकर लगी तब होश आया,
तुम्हारे बगैर कितने खोखले थे, ये हमें तब समाज आया।
ढूँढते हे तुम्हे आज भी,
पढ़ते हे रत दिन तुम्हारे अफसाने।
रुठोंगे जो तुम यूँ इस कदर,
हर जायेंगे ज़िन्दादी से मैं और तुम।

वक्त की रफ्तार

- Pooja Lakhotiya
Semester - 6

आज फिर वक्त ने रफ्तार से हाथ मिलाया है,
फिर वही तीन साल पहले वाला किस्सा दोहराया है,
आज फिर वक्त हमे उसी मोड पर ले आया है।

वो बारह साल जैसे खुसियों का खजाना था,
बस उन यारो के पास ही हमारा ठिकाना था,
दिल तो बस उसी यारी का दीवाना था।

आज दिल मे फिर वही बेचेनी है,
फिर वही उलजन है, फिर वही शिकयाते है।

फिर एकबार नई रहो को अपनाना है,
फिर किसी भीड़ मे खो जाना है,
बेशक अब अपने सपनों के पीछे जाना है,
क्यो की यही उसूल-ए-ज़माना है...

यादों का बस्ता भर फिर वैसे ही जाना है ,
कुछ सालो बाद जो याद करेंगे ये वही जमाना है,
इस गुजरते वक्त के बाद ना हीं तीन सालो का बहाना है...

जिंदगी फिर उसी कस्मकस मे है,
कैसे सहेंगे ये जुदाई, यह अब ना बस मे है।

अब तो बस तेरी यारी पर ही हक होगा,
अपने अड्डो पर भी कल से किसी और का बस होगा ,
नजाने इस दौर के अंत का क्या अंजाम होगा...

जिस काफिले से रोशन था ये सफर,
जिस साथ से आसान थी मुश्किल डगर,
आज उसी से जुयाई का फरमान आया है...
आज फिर वक्त ने रफ्तार से हाथ मिलाया है...

हम सोचते है...

- Rashida Merchant
Semester - 6

हम सोचते हे ये आज हमेशा हे
क्या फरेब फिर ये अंदेशा हे

माहोल ये कुछ थामस जाये
एकबार फिर डरे सहेमे हम घुल से जाये
वो नई शुरुआत हम फिर कर पाए
हर दिल में आज खुशियों का मलाल हे.

हम सोचते हे आज ये हमेशा हे
क्या फरेब फिर ये अंदेशा हे

कुछ मस्तीयो के तार छेड़ने बाकि हे
केन्टीन में वो लडको को स्माइल देना बाकि हे
लंच में गप्पे मरना अभी बाकि हे
और कुछ कुछ कोर्स अब भी बाकि हे

हम सोचते हे आज ये हमेशा हे
क्या फरेब फिर ये अंदेशा हे.

लम्हे ये सरे जीने नहीं मिले
टूटे आईने जेसे ये आखरी दिन लगे
बसा कर ले जाये ये छोटा सा जहाँ कैसे?
आँखे तो वैसे ही भर आई हे

हम सोचते हे आज ये हमेशा हे
क्या फरेब फिर ये अंदेशा हे
वो रोज की भाग दोड याद आएगी
आएगी याद कॉलेज के हर कोने की
रूम.107 से किया आगाझ नहीं भूलेंगे
वो 4 जुलाई 2016 की क्लास ही जैसे सब हे

हम सोचते हे आज ये हमेशा हे
क्या फरेब फिर ये अंदेशा हे

कदम मेरे कापेंगे एक बार
इस दुनिया से दूर हो जाना हे
होसलो की भरेंगे हम उडान
लेकिन भूलेंगे नहीं ये हमारा अपना परीवार.

HACC HOSTS GU ELLISBRIDGE SOUTH ZONE AND INTER-ZONAL YOUTH FESTIVALS

Gujarat Law Society's HACC is among the rare grant-in-aid colleges to have the privilege of hosting both, the Ellisbridge South Zone and the Inter-Zonal youth festivals of Gujarat University, in the month of September this year. Aptly titled Prajwalan 2018, the tag-line of the events – “Igniting Talent” – indicated exactly what the Youth Festival is all about.

The Ellisbridge South Zone Youth Festival of Gujarat University was held from 12th to 15th September 2018 at four different venues, namely HACC, Thakorebhai Desai Hall, Senate Hall and the seminar hall of the Zoology Department at GU. With 45 colleges participating in 29 different events, this is the largest zone of Gujarat University, recording a staggering 1500 plus number of participants! What usually would take two or three days to organize all the events, this round of the youth festival took 4 whole days to accommodate all the participating institutions. Noteworthy among these events was the One-Act Play competition which recorded 16 participating colleges, as against about half the number last year.

The inaugural Rally had a host of colleges participating with pomp and show, and with students dressed in various costumes depicting the theme “Unity in Diversity”.

The best three performances of all the events held at the three zones – City Zone, Ellisbridge North Zone and Ellisbridge South Zone - compete at the inter-zonal level which was also organized by HACC. The 29 different competitions were held at the same four venues, and since there were only nine competitors for each event from the three zones of the University, this level of the youth festival covered two days.

The Principal of the college led the organization of the events forward, with coordinators and joint-coordinators. At the Ellisbridge South Zone level, Dr. Mahesh Sonara and Prof. Malti Vala were the coordinators. At the Inter-Zonal level, Dr. Chetan Mewada and Prof. Nikhil Vaidya were the coordinators.

The team spirit of HACC was evident in the way the entire staff and the committed volunteers worked towards organizing these events under the leadership of Principal Dr. Sanjay Vakil.

Productive Partnerships and Fruitful Connections: New Jersey City University, USA, and H.A. College of Commerce, Ahmedabad

The liaison between NJCU and HACC, which began in 2015, has now turned into a strong bond of collaborative partnership. When educational institutions partner with each other in a spirit of friendship and common good, it is certain to turn into a mutually benefiting outcome, bringing advantages to the students, the faculty and the cause of education. NJCU and HACC have experienced this outcome.

On the 5th and 6th of January 2019, Dr. Sue Henderson, President, NJCU, and Ms. Tamara Cunningham, Asst. Vice-President, (Global Initiatives), NJCU, visited Gujarat Law Society to meet with Shri Sudhir Nanavati, Executive Vice-President, GLS, and President, GLS University, and other GLS officials, so as to strengthen the existing ties between the two institutions. The Patel Scholars Program, currently running between the two institutions, is the pilot project funded by HACC alumnus, Mr. Chirag Patel, Co-founder and Co-CEO, Amneal Pharmaceuticals, USA. Under this program, 5 students from Gujarat Law Society's HA College of Commerce are funded every year to study MBA at the NJCU School of Business, since 2016.

At the luncheon meeting between GLS and NJCU on 5th of January, the two institutions discussed many of the projects running at their respective organizations, opening the path for future alliances and further partnerships.

President Henderson spoke about how India is sure to be the bright spot in the global future and how she has been impressed with the way Indians and India have progressed over the years. She mentioned how proud she is of the diversity of her university, and how she can see a similar diversity in India. She looks forward to many partnerships and programs between GLS and NJCU for the benefit of the students.

Shri Sudhir Nanavati spoke about the growth of GLSU and GLS over the years, hoping for alliances that will strengthen the next generation and the country. He appreciated the efforts of Dr. Sanjay Vakil, Principal, HACC, and the faculty of HACC. There were interactions between the Deans, Principals and Directors of GLS, with Ms Cunningham regarding international relations between NJCU and GLS.

The ties between HACC and NJCU reached a peak when 14 students and 2 faculty members came for 6 days as guests of the HA Gandhian Society. This visit of the NJCU team of students and faculty to a college in India, with organized homestays for all, in order to experience

Gandhi's life and ideals, is one of the most unique events in educational history. The NJCU students and faculty of sociology, ESL, criminal justice, psychology etc. were hosted by students of HACC; the faculties were hosted by faculties of HACC. Dr. William Westerman and Dr. Steve Haber led the 14 students from NJCU on their trip to India. The six days of their visit were packed with visits to Gandhian sites, archeological sites, guest lectures, interactions and, most enjoyably, dance and shopping. The Principal, Dr. Sanjay Vakil, led the planning and the execution of this visit, getting personally involved with all the activities of the visitors. The faculty members of the Gandhian Society, Dr. Jean Dsouza, Dr. Anuradha Pagedar, Dr. M.R. Sonara and Prof. Shubhra Nanavaty, also were highly involved with this visit.

The welcome ceremony of these students was filled with fanfare and tradition, with HACC students dressed in sarees, welcoming the guests with garlands and tika. The next six days included visits to Gujarat Vidyapith, Gandhi Ashram, Adalaj ni Vav, Amdavad ni Gufa, Heritage Walk, etc. It also included the celebration of the kite-flying festival together with the host students. On the last day, the college celebrated Traditional Day, wherein all the students of the college dressed in traditional garments, and the visitors too joined in with Indian clothing. All the students and faculty danced to tunes of garba and raas, enjoying the company, the music and the ambiance.

The visiting students were included in the lives of the families of the home-stays organized for them. They enjoyed cooking, eating and sharing lives with the families they lived with. They experienced some of the values and life-style of Gandhi in their home-stays, thus ensuring the

AWARD OF EXCELLENCE

The principal, Dr. Sanjay Vakil received an award for excellence in the academic field. This national award was conferred upon him by the Shri Sathya Sai Central Trust, Puttaparthi, as recognition for his outreach work and social service, together with academic excellence.

After receiving this award, the Rotary Club of Ahmedabad (Prahladnagar) felicitated him for his success. The Rotary Club gave Prin. Vakil an award for the receipt of the national award and for successfully organizing the 6-day visit of the students and faculty of New Jersey City University, USA.

HACC PRINCIPAL RECEIVES NATIONAL POSITION

Prin. Dr. Sanjay Vakil of H.A. College of Commerce was appointed the Secretary General of the Association of Indian College Principals (AICP) on 10 March 2019. Founded in 1998, the AICP is a national body that has given a platform for the college principals to express their views on the problems faced by the higher education system today.

At the 20th national conference hosted by N.S. Patel Arts College, Sardar Patel Education Trust, Anand, the executive committee of the AICP unanimously decided to appoint Prin. Dr. Vakil as Secretary General for a period of three years.
