

H A College of Commerce

Collegiate women's Development committee and ICC

"The most beautiful thing a woman can wear is confidence."

These words express the inspirational value adorned by the CWDC of the college. They signify the main objective of the CWDC of the college. We, at H. A. College try to equip our girls with the eternal values of Confidence, attitude, and smile. It is an attempt to make the girls feel confident by providing opportunities and by motivating them to understand and recognize their self-worth. Girls do possess all the potential to make a mark in the life. What they lack is an opportunity and support to show case their talents. H.A. College has an established CWDC which is formed as per the Gujarat University's norms and directives. It is a result of guidelines given by the Hon. Supreme Court of India. The Guidelines are in consideration of enhancing gender equality with equal opportunities. The creation and establishment of CWDC is significant for the purpose of guarantying gender equality and right to live/work with human dignity.
